PROSPECTUS OF A new Story with an old Subject.

Take Author, in presenting the following wors to the pub-lic, cannot but feel that he has an ardious task to per form in catering to the public fixed, and has somewhat d og up a subject which, if carefully perused, and the miwill be gravified to he almost extent, and the object of the your will be attended, win to put money in my purse and to such the areasy of the digistive organs. It might pe haps be a cessary to state, that the most of the manuscrip from which this tale was founded, was taken from an e dress pucket frought in a second hand Clothing store a few weeks since in New York by the author, and originally own ed by the ledstatigable Mrs. Tooders, at once conveying to the mind of the reader that a bregain may be expecthinking the and and indutgent public will excuse may blan dees and took with a post-contains; eye upon my humble ef-forts to procure for them 1st, 3 chests of imparial and Black Psas, the flows over brought to this morket, and put up in such a share that every one can see it for themselves till keeping in view the philanthropic principle which ac Moches, Old Gor, Java and Saltimore Rio Coffees. I mus not digress so far from my subject as to forget that I also laid in a bountiful supply of daker's Brown and French Chocolate, an excellent morning drink for my nervous reador in these troubless positions times. In complising the forthcoming work I shall "dilute" pretty extensively on the merits of "Ye Fig." The tolowing extract taken from the down Favnett will convey some idea of the atten-"We take pleasure in aunouncing that a celebrated au-that from one of the Western Status is now in our city co-lecting up- imens for a Josincoming work, upon which he get. We notice a large invoice of the genuine "Heid Champagne," together with a full assertment of choice Wines and Liquors, among which the celebrates Policeuray Brandy, all of which the liberal author intends t treat his many readers, or as many o' them who have the contracts to pay for it. We wish the author success to As the author feels incompetent to pressed in that Flour's ayle so common with writers of the present day,

For "fear" (and what author is without 10 that this stupen louv enterprise might end in "anch," the author has carefully laid in a large and choice collection of "Seg irs," which will give each reader an op-permaity of eastaining the author by giving him a "pur" and furthermore, in order to verify the old Proverb of where there is so much smoke there must be some fire, the compiler of these valuable manuscripts has added a heavy about of "Muldies." As another digression, for which I beg parties of all authors who "spice" their concections with brilliant showers of wit and humor, I have employed a enbatitute, which I cannot but believe is of a more substan tial nature, viz: a choice associment of Naturegs, Ginger (Kanasanon, Clores, French, English and Kentucky Mus tards, Allepice, Pepper, ground and unground, Categor o different varieties, Worcestershire, John Bull, and Harry Saures, and in the place of sweetening the many beautiful passages, which will occur from time to time with monologic raps, seplays breases, and the nector sign from the pure leps of insucence, I have employed the more powerful argument of Powdered, Crushed, Louf, Carified, Granulated, and different degrees of Boson Sugara, combined with the more inputs streams of Relocied, Sugar House and Plantation Milasses, and the bright and flowing Golden Syrup. How beautiful, indulgent reader, does Pop liver (the author does not disfinctly remember) express himself in the following "Honey'd Strating": How doth the little busy flee that to order more fully to carry out the objects of this same sork, I have provided myself with a large stock of this honey the author above speaks of, which will be used in its natural state or "afronised" to suit the taste of the reader as "sfraining" is a too common error among authors, which too very often places them in a position where they are compelled to mak- a 'ruise.' I have in order, if possible to avoid that unpleasant predicament, taken the precaution to provide a large supply of Presion & Marit's Yearst Providers. whose raising qualities my numerous real rabase proba-bly formed some opinion. As a bright and shining "light as I intend this work to be I shall sussificte the agency Star, Adamentias, Speem and Tillow Carolles, and "cleane" the mird of all impulies shall resort to Carolles. Olsia and Common Bar Soop, which, together with Wash Boards, Tubs, Backsts, Brooms and Scrub Brushes, I have produced an abundant supply. As it is a tens-honor oil custom with compilers of great works to first "point the numbers forming" of their readers, I take pleasure in staling that I shall for this purpose bring late requirement of anyphy of "Blacking" and "Shor Branches," and in order to that effect. As this wors will, un onbredly, lall into the hand of agreed usery highly a lucated persons, who will look for the more dignified of "alif" portlant of the wors. I shall introduce a heavy stock of Calyrion of the work.

Force and Lift Pump. For the States of Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina orgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisians. W have tested the Pump in all its recommended uses for ord unry purposes—in wells, and as fire engines; and herita-not to sav that it is superior to any pump now in use. It simple and plain in its construction; can be taken to pice or put together by any ordinary man, black or white, in he minute. There is not a screw or boil about the pump; the is the least imaginable friction—hence its durability. It almost impossible for it to get out of fix by usage. When used for a well or distern it can be converted into a Fire Engine in one minute, and by one man water can be thrown over the tallest houses in the country. It is invalu able as a Fire Engine, and especially in the country or coun tey towns. It is equally well adapted to all machinery, Railroad Tanks

&c., and will, when known, superscede all other pumps. I can be used for either hot or cold water.

Having fully satisfied ourselves as to the capacity, value and utility of the Pump, we are ready to make sales of the above territory by counties or States, (except the Wester District of this State, which has been sold.) We confidenti ecommend the Pump to the citizens of the States mentions The Pumps are cheap, and therefore within the reach Address PORTER & BRIEN, NASHVILLE, Tenn.
